

Kelley Fox Wines Albariño 2023

This small bottling of Albariño was fun to produce and is intended to be a super casual white table wine. The fruit was whole cluster pressed and spent its entire life in a small stainless tank. It is brilliantly transparent pale, pastel yellow in appearance. The nose is full of mixed tropical citrus with a nod to peach skin and a green energy that is life-filled and refreshing as opposed to underripe and austere. The mouth is juicy and mirrors the tropical citrus nose with just a hint of pleasing plant-y character carried by racy acidity, a smooth texture, and a really nice, clean finish.
