

Kelley Fox Wines Durant Vineyard Chardonnay 2024

The 2024 is brilliantly transparent with the colour of light spun gold. The nose is a heady and rich creamy tropical fruit and mixed citrus without being overbearing. There's an inviting freshness to it with soft minerals and subtle spices. I could drink this wine every day, and I don't drink my own wines, typically. It's mouthwatering with seamless structure. It is fine and balanced. The finish is long, with silk drape. This is a very small bottling from three barrels, but I plan to increase it to six barrels in 2026.
